Job Title	Tutor
Grade	7
Responsible For (Job Title)	N/A

Principal Accountabilities

Provide teaching support and guidance to students:

- ensuring that content, methods of delivery, and learning materials meet defined learning objectives and needs of students.
- observing student performance, conducting assessments, setting and marking assignments and providing feedback in relation to current practice, as appropriate.
- responding appropriately to day to day operational problems and solving issues raised by students, referring matters on where necessary.

Build and maintain good working relationships with relevant stakeholders:

- within the University, including students, colleagues and managers in the Faculty and across the University as appropriate.
- external to the University, such as external partners and placement contacts, ensuring that placement learning outcomes are being met.

Key Tasks

Learning & Teaching

Use a variety of creative learning and teaching methods/materials (e.g. web-based and blended learning), challenge ideas, foster debate, and encourage students to develop skills in critical discourse and rational thinking.

Conduct appropriate and challenging assessments that measure student performance and meet learning objectives; set students work, assess and make sound judgements about progress, providing feedback that is honest, detailed and constructive.

Contribute to the development of exam questions.

Provide informal support and advice to students in accordance with existing procedures, referring them to appropriate services for further guidance.

Seek ways of improving own performance by reflecting on own teaching in terms of content, design and delivery, obtaining and analysing feedback and results.

Support and supervise the work of students, provide advice on study skills and individual needs.

Placements (If appropriate)

Supervise and provide support, guidance and advice to students on placement.

Observe student performance during placements and assess whether they are meeting course learning objectives and the standards required by the University or professional, statutory or regulatory bodies.

Monitor demands placed upon students during placements and provide a first point of contact for student welfare issues, referring problems on where they are complex or serious.

Liaise with student mentors and/or course Lecturers to discuss problems or conflicts during student placement and make recommendations on how to resolve issues so that the working relationship is maintained.

Build and maintain strong working relationships with placement contacts and student mentors to maximise future placement opportunities and uphold our University values and reputation.

Research & Knowledge Exchange

Participate in networks; develop internal and external partnerships in order to disseminate information, share best practice, establish opportunities for collaborative work and enhance the reputation of the University.

Engage in scholarly activity and continuous research to remain up-to-date with developments in subject area.

Teamworking

Plan personal workload and achieve goals through working flexibly with colleagues in the Faculty and across the University.

Actively participate as a member of a programme and partnership team, providing mutual support to colleagues, and contributing to the development of productive working relationships.

Attend and contribute to subject group meetings.

Collaborate with academic colleagues through team meetings on programme and partnership developments, changes, or student issues. Attend and contribute to programme and partnership meetings as required.

Promote the Faculty and University by supporting a range of activities such as recruitment and admissions, open days and other student events; using these activities as an opportunity to gain a better understanding of student needs and expectations.

Actively engage with the peer observation scheme to support the development of self and others and to ensure high quality learning and teaching.

Attend Faculty, Programme and Academic Division meetings/boards in order to contribute to the decision-making process and to develop productive working relationships within and across teams.
